For 200MthP, 300Mas and 300Mac level courses a graphing Calculator is highly recommended for these courses, as laptops and other devices are not permitted in end of year exams. However, we recognise that these calculators are expensive and it is not essential to have one. The recommended model is a Casio FX9860Gii.

For all other courses a Scientific Calculator is required - we recommend a Casio FX-82AU or similar
